

Danville Concert Association Program Advertising (danvilleconcert@gmail.com)

Our spring season, 2022, will present a duo of high-caliber performances and we would be proud to have your advertising support. While we will continue to produce a paper program in 2022, we do aim to gently add digital programs, and reduce paper programs over the years ahead. With your commitment to advertise, your ad will be seen by all of our patrons in both paper and digital format, you will receive season tickets, and you will be invited to our lively post-performance receptions!

In order for your ad to appear in both the March 12th and April 30th programs, it is critical that Kim at Demont Design receive your camera-ready ad by Feb 25, 2022. (Earlier would be better!) Please connect with Kim at demontdesign@verizon.net or (434) 792-0612.

To expedite, feel free to take a photo of this form once it has been filled out, and email to danvilleconcert@gmail.com. We will invoice you later for your ad. If you prefer to mail the form, that is also fine. Thank you for supporting the arts in Danville!
